

Honor the Soldiers in Your Life

The 2011 United States Army Commemorative Coins are the perfect gift to honor the Soldiers in your life on Memorial Day, the Army's Birthday/Flag Day (June 14th), July 4th, or Veterans Day. Available only this year, the U.S. Army $5 gold, silver dollar, and clad half-dollar coins celebrate the service's storied history and honor the 30 million American men and women who have worn the U.S. Army uniform since 1775.

- The $5 gold coin represents the Army Service in War.

- The silver dollar depicts Modern Army Service.

- The clad half-dollar represents Army Service in Peace.

Surcharges collected from coin sales -- $35 dollars for each gold coin, $10 for each silver coin, and $5 for each clad coin -- are authorized to be paid to the Army Historical Foundation to help finance the National Museum of the United States Army, which will be built at Fort Belvoir, Virginia.

Watch our own BG Creighton W. Abrams, Jr., USA-Ret. discuss the Army Historical Foundation's partnership with the United States Army to build the National Museum of the United States Army on Comcast Newsmakers. The Museum will preserve the history of the United States Army and the heritage of the American Soldier. Help support the National Museum of the United States Army and honor the Soldiers in your life by purchasing the 2011 Army Commemorative Coins.

The coins are available in either proof or uncirculated qualities.
